

WHAT TO EXPECT: SNAP BENEFIT CHANGES

Starting October 1st, 2021

SNAP households will receive an increased monthly SNAP benefit, beginning in October 2021.

Maximum SNAP benefits levels
Household Size	Before COVID bump	With 15% COVID increase	Based on new TFP
	Oct – Dec 2020	Jan – Sept 2021	Starting Oct 2021
1	$204	$234	$250
2	$374	$430	$459
3	$535	$616	$658
4	$680	$782	$835
5	$807	$929	$992
6	$969	$1,114	$1,190
7	$1,071	$1,232	$1,316
8	$1,224	$1,408	$1,504
Each added person	$153	$176	$188

Why the change?

SNAP benefits were boosted 15% during the pandemic.
This boost ends on September 30th.

USDA recently increased SNAP benefit levels by 21%.
This increase starts on October 1st.

If your SNAP application gets denied or if DHHS terminates your benefits, contact 603 Legal Aid for help.

www.nhlegalaid.org

603-224-3333